Court being satisfied, based on the representations made in the Application and the Affidavit, that Rust represents no interest adverse to the Debtors' estates with respect to matters upon which it is to be retained, that Rust is a "disinterested person" as that term is defined under Section 104(14) of the Bankruptcy Code, as modified by section 1107(b) of the Bankruptcy Code; and it appearing that the relief requested in the Application is in the best interests of the Debtors and their estates and creditors; and after due deliberation and sufficient cause appearing therefor, it is hereby:

ORDERED that Rust is authorized and approved to act as the Claims Handling Agent as of the date hereof and to perform the tasks and duties, in part, set forth in the Application, the Claims Services Agreement and the Bar Date Motion; and it is further

ORDERED that Rust be employed and compensated in accordance with the Claims Services Agreement without further Order of this Court, upon the submission of monthly invoices by Rust to the Debtors summarizing, in reasonable detail, the services for which compensation is sought; and it is further

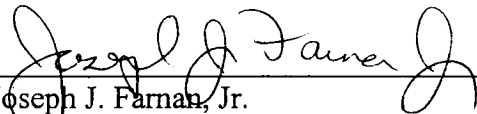

ORDERED that notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in the Claims Services Agreement, Rust will not cease providing services to the Debtors without obtaining the prior approval and authority from the Court to cease such services; and it is further

ORDERED that the Debtors are authorized and empowered to take all actions and execute such other documents as may be necessary to implement the relief granted herein; and it is further ORDERED that this Court shall retain jurisdiction to hear and determine all matters arising from the implementation of this Order.
